Section 2. If any member is believed in good faith to have violated the Principles of Medical Ethics or the Bylaws of the organization or of the AAFP, or to be otherwise guilty of conduct justifying censure, suspension, expulsion from the organization, or removal from office, then any voting member may prefer charges against that member in the form and manner hereinafter specified. All those against whom charges have been filed pursuant to this chapter shall have the right to be represented by counsel at the initial hearing and upon appeal to the AAFP.

At the hearing, the accuser and the accused shall have every opportunity to be heard, including oral arguments and the filing and consideration of written briefs. After hearing the evidence, the Board shall conclude the hearing and shall render a decision within thirty (30) days after the hearing.
